Here ye! Here ye!

Peanut Butter Day on the 4th, celebrate peanut butter by bringing and enjoying your favorite snacks and foods, learning about its history, how it's made, telling jokes, etc.

The 5th is Let's Laugh Day, a day of all things funny! Bring on the jokes and funny stories, silly hats, silly shirts, anything that will make your friends laugh!

International Women's Day on the 7th will be celebrating the important roles women have played throughout "herstory". The 28th is Get Outside Day! We'll be getting into the great outdoors by going on walks, playing games, and learning about all things outdoors.

The 11th is National Dreams Day. We'll talk all things dreams, from what they are to what our own dreams and goals are and what we can do to accomplish them.

On Mythical Creature Day, the 13th, bring your magical creature plushies, wear your unicorn and dragon shirts, and get ready to learn about all different kinds of mythical creatures from around the world.

On the 17th it is St. Patrick's Day! Wear all things green, dress up in your luckiest attire, and prepare to play some leprechaun games!

The 18th is Green Day. It's basically a day for those who weren't here on St. Patrick's to get a chance to rock their green clothing.

The 24th is Won't You Be My Neighbor Day. We'll be taking some notes out of Mr. Rogers' book and learning from him and the things he taught while learning to be a better neighbor!

On the 27th we are celebrating Superhero Day! Wear your superhero clothes or costume and get ready to do some super activities!
